CANADIAN TEXTILE RECOVERY EFFORT

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

Textile Industry Member Fees

Brands, retailers, manufacturers, and designers will pay a small minimum annual membership fee according to their annual revenue. Fees collected will contribute to the operations of the CTRE and the development of resources for its members.

ANNUAL REVENUE	ANNUAL FEE
Under 1 Million	$150
1-10 Million	$500
10-40 Million	$1,000
40-100 Million	$2,000
100-500 Million	$3,000
500- 1 Billion	$4,000
1 Billion +	$5,000

Non-Industry Member Fees

If you or your business is not directly involved in the textile industry but could benefit from textile recovery (i.e. Non-retail corporate entities, companies that are rebranding, service industries, event management companies, etc), you could also be a part of the effort to divert textile waste from landfills and incinerators. For non-industry members, a minimum annual membership fee of $150 can be made payable to the Canadian Textile Recovery Effort.

Free Membership

Charities, academic Institutions, industry affiliates and nongovernmental organizations are all eligible for free membership in the CTRE. To find out if you qualify for free membership please contact the CTRE at info@textilerecovery.org.

Please make donations payable to the Canadian Textile Recovery Effort. The CTRE will invoice the accounts payable contact provided on page one of the application form. Your support towards a sustainable industry future is greatly appreciated.
